

Rooftop solar potential of buildings within the Kumpula area of Helsinki

Presented is the normalized amount of electricity that could be generated per square meter of roof over the span of one year.

